Artwork Guidelines

Artwork must be supplied black and white camera-ready, to exact size and color-separated. If your artwork requires us to change art size, transform a rough layout or set type, you will incur art charges which will be quoted at the time. Photocopies, business cards and stationery are not acceptable forms of camera-ready artwork.

We accept art in either PC or Mac based formats - Adobe Illustrator, Quark or Photoshop files preferred with fonts converted to outline.

If placed images (scans) are used in Illustrator, scans must be included with the job. Scans should be 600 DPI or higher.

We will also accept the following formats: Encapsulated Postscript (.eps) and Portable Document Format (.pdf).

Acceptable medias include CDs and 3.5" floppy disks.

Art files should be compressed using WinZip or Stuff-it to guard against corruption and to reduce the file size.

A copy or printout of all digital and email artwork must accompany the purchase order to ensure digital file accuracy.

Proofs

One black and white proof will be submitted for all new custom printed orders. Orders will not be scheduled for production until signed proof approval is received. All artwork becomes our property unless otherwise discussed.

*Orders cancelled after artwork being proofed will incur a cancellation charge plus any art, plate, special material or die charges.
